

sanction. Many countries are importing oil from Iraq and helping it out. You also know that. It is clearly a case of US pressure.

SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM: Even US companies are doing benami transactions through Singapore.

SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: The Government is relenting before the US pressure on this question. It is an offer that is inherently helpful to this country.

SHRI RAM NAIK: The sanctions are not from the US. The sanctions are from the U.N. We have very good relations with Iraq. We are also negotiating with them and, at an appropriate time, we will have a good quantity of oil from them.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question Hour is over.
